Amy Wilson

White Collar Criminal Speaker

“The Truth Set Me Free”

Hello, my name is Amy Wilson. I’m an accountant and an ex-felon.

I’ve always been confident in myself. This quality brought me great success at work and over time resulted in my becoming arrogant and selfish. My coworkers and bosses said I was excellent at my job, dependable and trustworthy.

At home, I was in desperate need of cash to resolve family financial issues. I took advantage of my employer and embezzled $345,000.

I told myself I would find a way to pay it back. I plainly see now what I did was wrong from all angles and I take full responsibility for my actions. I will never get over the look of betrayal in my boss’ eyes.

I plead guilty to 8 forgery and theft felonies and was sentenced to 6 years in Indiana Dept of Corrections. I served two years, and am on probation until May 2013.

Recognizing God’s forgiveness for my sins and the redemption that comes with my repentance; I want in some small way pay my debt to society by sharing how I committed my crime and how you can protect your or your client’s businesses

Amy did fantastic. She was the perfect after lunch speaker. She really motivated the audience. Thank you for sending her to us.

Today, my family and I are rebuilding our lives. I disclosed my past criminal record to my current employer. After a thorough background check they hired me. I’m very grateful to be so blessed.
